Todd

So, I hear you're trying to be an actor.

Ben

I'm not trying – I am an actor.

Todd

Would I have seen you in anything? TV? Film?

Ben

Okay, I'm trying to be an actor.

Todd

At least you're doing something you love.

Ben

What, you don't love being a doctor? I'd have thought the ladies would be lining up.

Todd

No, no it's not that...you'd think! It's just some days it's really tough. Take today, I have to tell Mrs. Martin her tests came back and it's not good. I'm a second year resident and I still can't look into someone's eyes and tell them they're sick.

Ben

What happens? Palms start sweating, mouth gets dry...

Todd

Exactly. Have you been a doctor?

Ben

Hey, man, you got stage fright. Happens to me all the time.
