Joe

Whoa. You don't look so good. You didn't find a place to stay last night did you?

Max

Oh, I found a place. And it was great. When I was thinking of where to stay, I thought, "Who needs a place to sleep but doesn't have a house?"

Joe

The homeless?

Max

Truckers.

Joe

Truckers?

Max

I went to the truck stop on Route 22, and it was great. They have coffee and a little room with cots where you can sleep. I hung out with all the truckers, we ate bacon sandwiches, told truckin' stories, and it was great, until this morning.

Joe

Yeah, nothing like waking up to the fresh scent of trucker.
