(To a waitress) May I have one forty-nine cent corn dog please?

Jake

You've got to stop ordering those. They're disgusting. You only think they're good because they're spinning.

Tim

What?

Jake

All the food here is spinning. Corn dogs, pretzels, hot dogs, pizza. It all spins.

Tim

I kinda like it. It's like the prizes on "The Price is Right".

Jake

It's an optical illusion so you can't tell how old it is. If that pizza were just sitting there, it would have been in the garbage a week ago. Keep it moving, it's good 'til Christmas.

Tim

Smart!
